

Let's Practice!

This is what happened between the rich man and the simple man.

Instructions: Match each sentence with its corresponding response. Write the number in front of each response.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1. The rich man walked over confidently | a. ____ the simpler man wanted to eat |
| 2. The rich man's wife kindly | supper, too. |
| 3. The rich man asked if | b. ____ the simple man to go to work. |
| 4. The simple man humbly | c. ____ agreed and ate his supper. |
| 5. The rich man told | d. ____ served the simple man lunch. |
| | e. ____ and offered him fifty cents a day. |

Let's Practice!

The rich man had a simple plan for the simple man.

Instructions: Circle the correct words to complete the sentence. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. The rich man (had always tried / was trying / tried) to find ways to save money by tricking the men who worked for him.
2. A simple-looking man on the street (was catching / had caught / caught) his eye.
3. The simple man (was agreeing / had agreed / agreed) to work for him.
4. The rich man (thought / had thought / was thinking) carefully about jobs that would require the man to work very hard.
5. When they (arrived / were arriving / had arrived) at the wealthy man's house, they went to bed because it was dark.